High Priest, of Plan, Lover of the Cosmos — the Elements who watch us from the shadows of the Astral Plane and guide us on the path of Blessed Order in the name of their God, Love itself. Through the sacred geometry of the lament configurations, they invite the curious to unravel the mysteries of pain and experience the divine secret.

Pinchasi has made a special study of pain-through his past life as an officer in the nightmare trenches of World War One. Now, as Arch Conantor, he's eager to make new converts who realize how dull and lifeless their lives are without the agony and ecstasy of pain. With books that tear and rend the flesh, their feelings jump, sleep becomes true alive.

all there have to do is open the box.

Licensed vigilante operating out of San Francisco, he specializes in taking down super heroes—the super-powered beings of the near future who claim to be the guardians of humanity. But Marshall recognizes them for the frauds they really are. And, when they use their powers to terrorize the public, he's sent in to deal with them—a job he does with the utmost relish and expertise.

His toughest target was the corrupt Public Spirt, America's greatest super hero, who Murdock exposed and destroyed. But his death failed to satisfy Murdock's hatred of super heroes, which ultimately is a hatred of himself.

For he was once a sugar hero, too — a hero of the Zone, the war in South America in which sugar soldiers were used for the first time. Thanks to bio-electronic spinal implants, these soldiers no longer felt pain and thus became men without fear or feelings, capable of anything. Their feelings numbed, they committed terrible atrocities.
